You are cordially invited

Dr. Mohan Madhukar Bhagwat is one of the prominent socio-cultural leaders of contemporary India. He was born in Chandrapur, Maharashtra, on 14th September 1950. He completed his M.Sc. in Veterinary Sciences from Panjabrao Agricultural University (now Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh Krishi Vidyapeeth) in 1974. Foregoing the pursuit of higher studies, he embarked upon his journey as a Pracharak of the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS). Over the years, he held several important positions, including Nagpur Pranth Pracharak, Vidarbha Pranth Pracharak, North-Eastern Kshethra Pracharak, Akhila Bharat Sharirik Pramukh, Akhila Bharat Pracharak Pramukh, and later, respected Sarkaryavah of the RSS.

Since 2009, Dr. Bhagwat has been serving as the 6th Sarsanghchalak of the RSS. Through his organizational skill and acumen, he has provided remarkable guidance to the organization. Under his leadership, the RSS has expanded its activities in social, educational, and cultural spheres.

National integration, cultural identity, and self-reliance are areas to which Dr. Bhagwat attaches great importance. He has consistently engaged in purposeful dialogues with religious leaders and youth from diverse communities. He also delivers lectures on topics such as social harmony, constitutional values, and sustainable development. His thoughts and guidance have had a profound influence on nation-building and India's cultural fabric.

Dr. Bhagwat is the youngest person to hold the post of Sarkaryavah of the RSS after Dr. Keshav Baliram Hedgewar and Sri M.S. Golwalkar.
